

Top 10 Reasons Why
Congregations
Should Send Their Youth to Pyoca

10. You can extend our sanctuary to include over 65 acres of God's beautiful creation.
9. You're showing children, youth and adults how important they are to our church.
8. You're planning for the future by developing the faith of the future leaders of our church.
7. Sending children and youth to Pyoca is a way to actively and visibly support this presbytery and share in ministry.
6. You can attract new youth (and families) by expanding your own summer programs to include all that Pyoca offers.
5. It expands youth's perception of the Presbyterian community of faith.
4. Give your youth a chance to spread their wings while being able to reassure their parents that the campers are safe and protected.
3. When adults from your church serve as counselors, nurses or educators- Pyoca offers youth and adults in your congregation a special way to get to know each other.
2. You can plan spiritually renewing events for the parents while their children are away.
1. Pyoca is a Presbyterian Camp and Conference facility - it reinforces the lessons you teach every week.
